

Conference Program

Tuesday 10 November 2009
1200 - 1400	DEEWR Advanced HEPCAT Training Session Maureen Wood, DEEWR	BANKSIA ROOM
1400 - 1700	Workshop 1 Overview of Institutional Research Limited to a maximum of 25 participants Wendy Marchment	BANKSIA ROOM with acknowledgment to

Wednesday 11 November 2009
0800 - 1700	Forum Registration and Reception open
0900 - 0915	Welcome by AAIR President: Josephine Palermo	REGENCY BALLROOM
0915 - 0930	Welcome to Country and Forum Opening: Prof James McWha, Vice-Chancellor &amp; President, The University of Adelaide	REGENCY BALLROOM
0930 - 1030	Keynote Speaker: Emeritus Professor Denise Bradley AC Convergence, competition and collaboration - planning in the emerging tertiary environment	REGENCY BALLROOM
1030 - 1100	Morning Tea
1100 - 1140	Paper 1.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE Student's academic performance and learning perceptions in an Australian University of Technology Andrias Paramita, RMIT University	Paper 1.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO Delving deeper into the graduate experience: new strands of analysis in the Australian Graduate Survey David Carroll, Graduate Careers Australia
1150 - 1230	Paper 2.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE The move to a system of flexible delivery mode (on-line v paper) unit of study student evaluations at Flinders University Talitha Bennett and David De Bellis, Flinders University	Paper 2.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO Measuring and improving participation and success of students in equity groups at Go8 universities Helen Montesin, Group of Eight
1230 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1410	Workshop 2 GREVILLEA ROOM Survey design, administration and analysis Limited to a maximum of 25 participants Wendy Marchment with acknowledgment to 	Paper 3.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE The use of the general achievement test in student selection at Monash University: A preliminary evaluation Dr Clare Hourigan, Monash University
1420 - 1500		Paper 3.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO Perceptions of staff in and clients of an Institutional Research Unit within an Australian Technological University Mark Lane, RMIT University
		Paper 4.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE Developing an Effective Tracking and Improvement system for Learning and Teaching: Achievements and Future Challenges in Maintaining Academic Standards Sue-Ann Stanford, Think: Education Group, Sydney, Australia
		Paper 4.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO A practical theory for changing society - one organisation at a time Dr Peter Rennie, Leadership Australia
1500 - 1530	Afternoon Tea and Networking
1530 - 1610	Paper 5.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE Using a network of program heads to enact successful change in a higher education institution Leonid Grebennikov and Kim Jarvis, University of Western Sydney	Special Interest Group 2 REGENCY BALLROOM DEEWR Reporting Maureen Wood, DEEWR Don Johnston, Southern Cross University
1620 - 1700	Paper 6.1 BANKSIA ROOM ONE Using strategy maps to support strategic planning and decision making in higher education Anne Young, The University of Newcastle	Paper 5.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO Beyond the Australian Graduate Survey Bruce Guthrie and Graeme Bryant, Graduate Careers Australia
		Paper 6.2 BANKSIA ROOM TWO Are current entry pathways for engineering programs the right strategy for meeting state and national demand for engineering graduates? Federico Santa Ana, The University of Adelaide
1800 - 2000	Welcome Drinks and Canapés - The South Australian Museum, North Terrace
2000	Free Evening for delegates - own arrangements for dinner

Thursday 12 November 2009

0800 - 1700	Forum Registration and Reception open
0915 - 0930	Day 2 Opening: Professor Peter Høj, Vice Chancellor &amp; President, University of South Australia		REGENCY BALLROOM
0930 - 1030	Keynote Speaker: Dr Gavin Moodie Quality, quantity and quintains: what the Commonwealth and others may expect of quantoids		REGENCY BALLROOM
1030 - 1100	Morning Tea
1100 - 1140	Paper 7.1 The parable of the search for low SES students: how ANU could turn high SES applicants (water) into low SES students (wine) David Marr, Australian National University	BANKSIA ROOM	Paper 7.2 Metadata implementation for a Business Intelligence environment Yuriy Verbitskiy, University of South Australia
1150 - 1230	Paper 8.1 Building institutional capability through the mining of student support data Alexandra Greene and Stella Birve, University of South Australia	BANKSIA ROOM	Paper 8.2 Factors contributing to attendance type of domestic undergraduate students R. Senaka Arachchi, University of Adelaide
1230 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1410	Paper 9.1 The Student Load Forecasting Dilemma - Factors influencing progression rates in Australian Universities before and after the Bradley Review Andrea Matulick, University of South Australia	BANKSIA ROOM	Paper 9.2 Enterprise Information Management (EIM): Turning information into knowledge in a post-bradley environment Bhavesh Chavda and Monish Paul, Deloitte
1420 - 1500	Paper 10.1 Turning wine back into water: Building strategic decisions from the ground up using disaggregated institutional data requires effective processes and an IT platform Julie Arthur and Naomi Doncaster, Southern Cross University	BANKSIA ROOM	Paper 10.2 Creative thinking and data analysis: Who in their right mind? Fiona Sutherland, Australian National University
1500 - 1530	Afternoon Tea and Networking
1530 - 1610	Paper 11.1 Retiring Later: Impacts on wellbeing for tertiary education workers Josephine Palermo, Deakin University	REGENCY BALLROOM	Paper 11.2 An Agile Extract Transform and Load (ETL) Data Development for ERA XML Submission Paul Wong, Australian National University
1610 - 1630	Paper 11.3 The relationship between study and work: perspectives from the Australian Graduate Survey Anton Griffith, Graduate Careers Australia		BANKSIA ROOM
1830 - 1930	Pre-Dinner Drinks - Next Generation Health and Racquet Club, Memorial Drive
1930 - 2330	Forum Gala Dinner - Next Generation Health and Racquet Club, Memorial Drive

Friday 13 November 2009

0800 - 1400	Forum Registration and Reception open
0900 - 0915	Day 3 Opening: Professor Andrew Parkin, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic), Flinders University		REGENCY BALLROOM
0915 - 1015	Keynote Speaker: Mr Nick Palousis The business case for sustainability in the Higher Education Sector		REGENCY BALLROOM
1015 - 1045	AAIR Annual General Meeting		REGENCY BALLROOM
1045 - 1100	Presentation by Australian Corporate Software		REGENCY BALLROOM
1100 - 1120	Morning Tea
1120 - 1200	Paper 12.1 Repeat paper by popular demand - TBA	REGENCY BALLROOM	Paper 12.2 Repeat paper by popular demand - TBA
1210 - 1250	Special Interest Group 4 Business Intelligence and Data Warehousing Dean Ward, Edith Cowan University	REGENCY BALLROOM	Paper 12.3 Course Assessment Profiling for enhanced educational and employment outcomes Sonia Ferns, Curtin University of Technology
1300 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1400	Announcement of 2010 Conference and Prizes for Best Paper and Best Presentation		REGENCY BALLROOM
	Conference Close by AAIR President : Josephine Palermo		REGENCY BALLROOM