Data validation

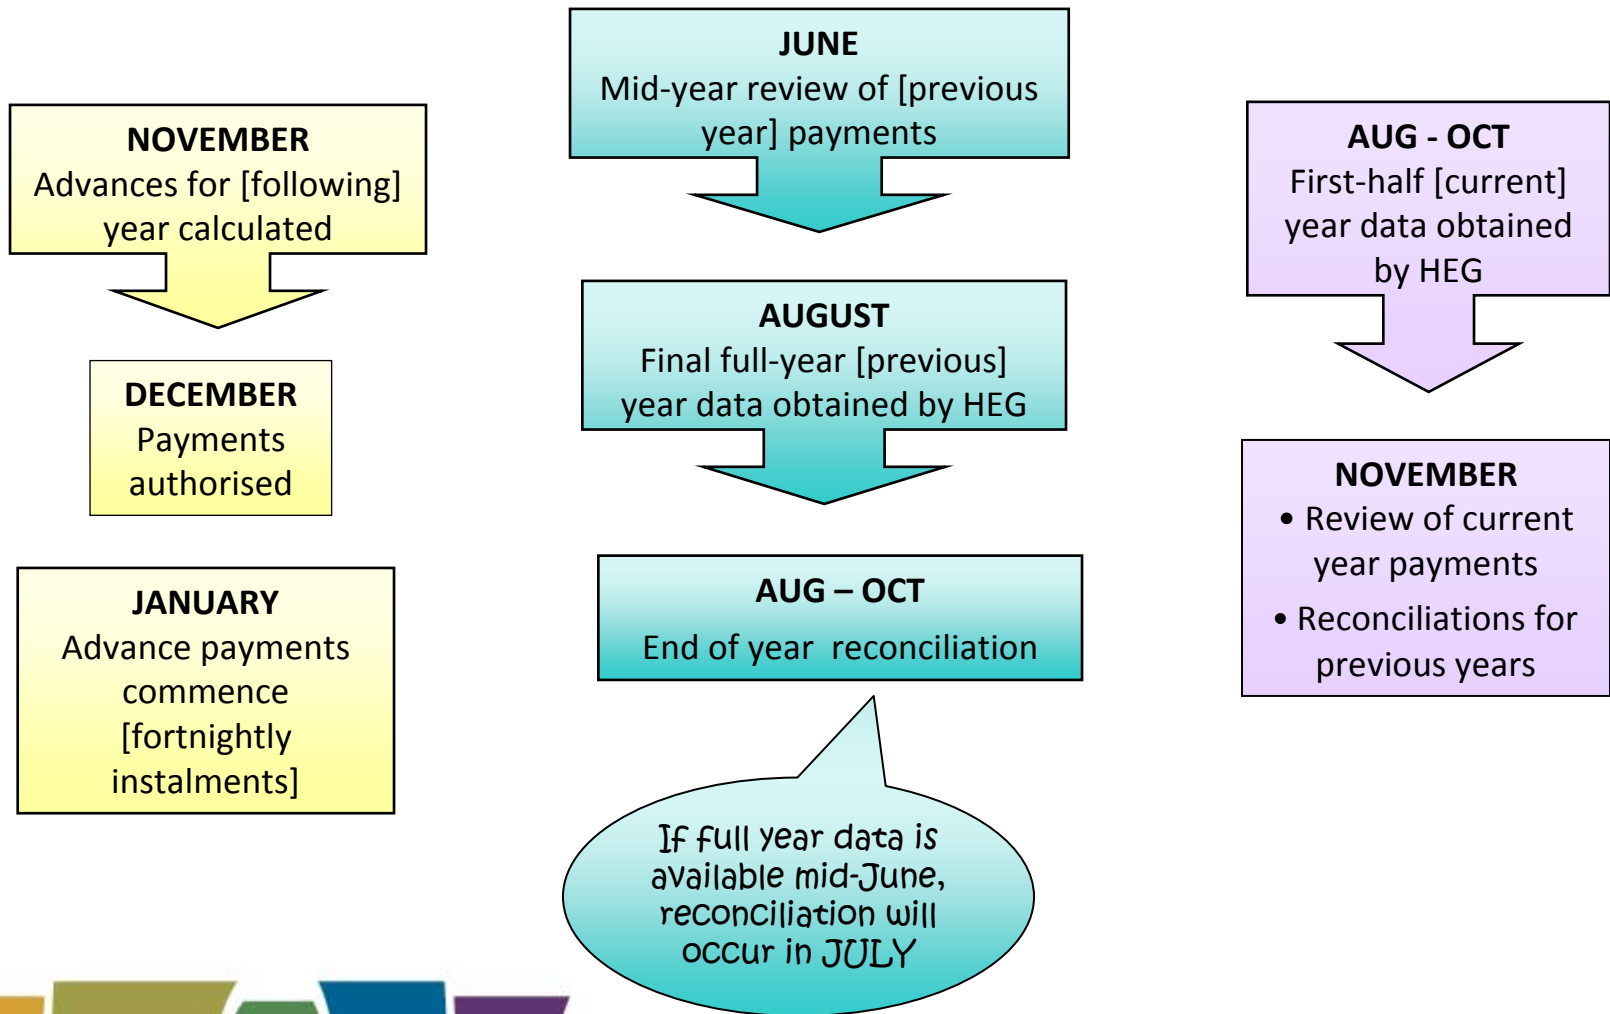

HEIMS Data verification

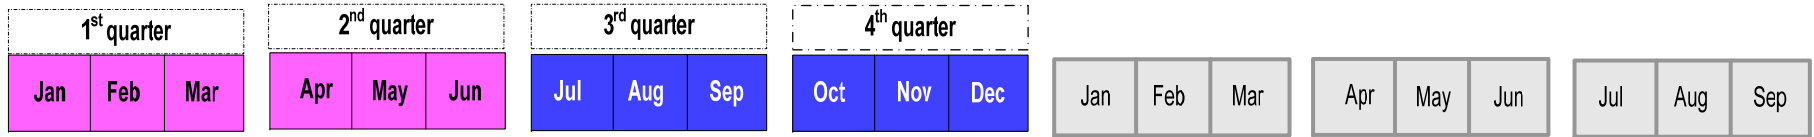

Key uses of published data

Funding dependencies - HELP cycles

Data availability 2005 - 2008

2005: February 2007*

2006: September 2007

2007: July 2008

2008: September 2009

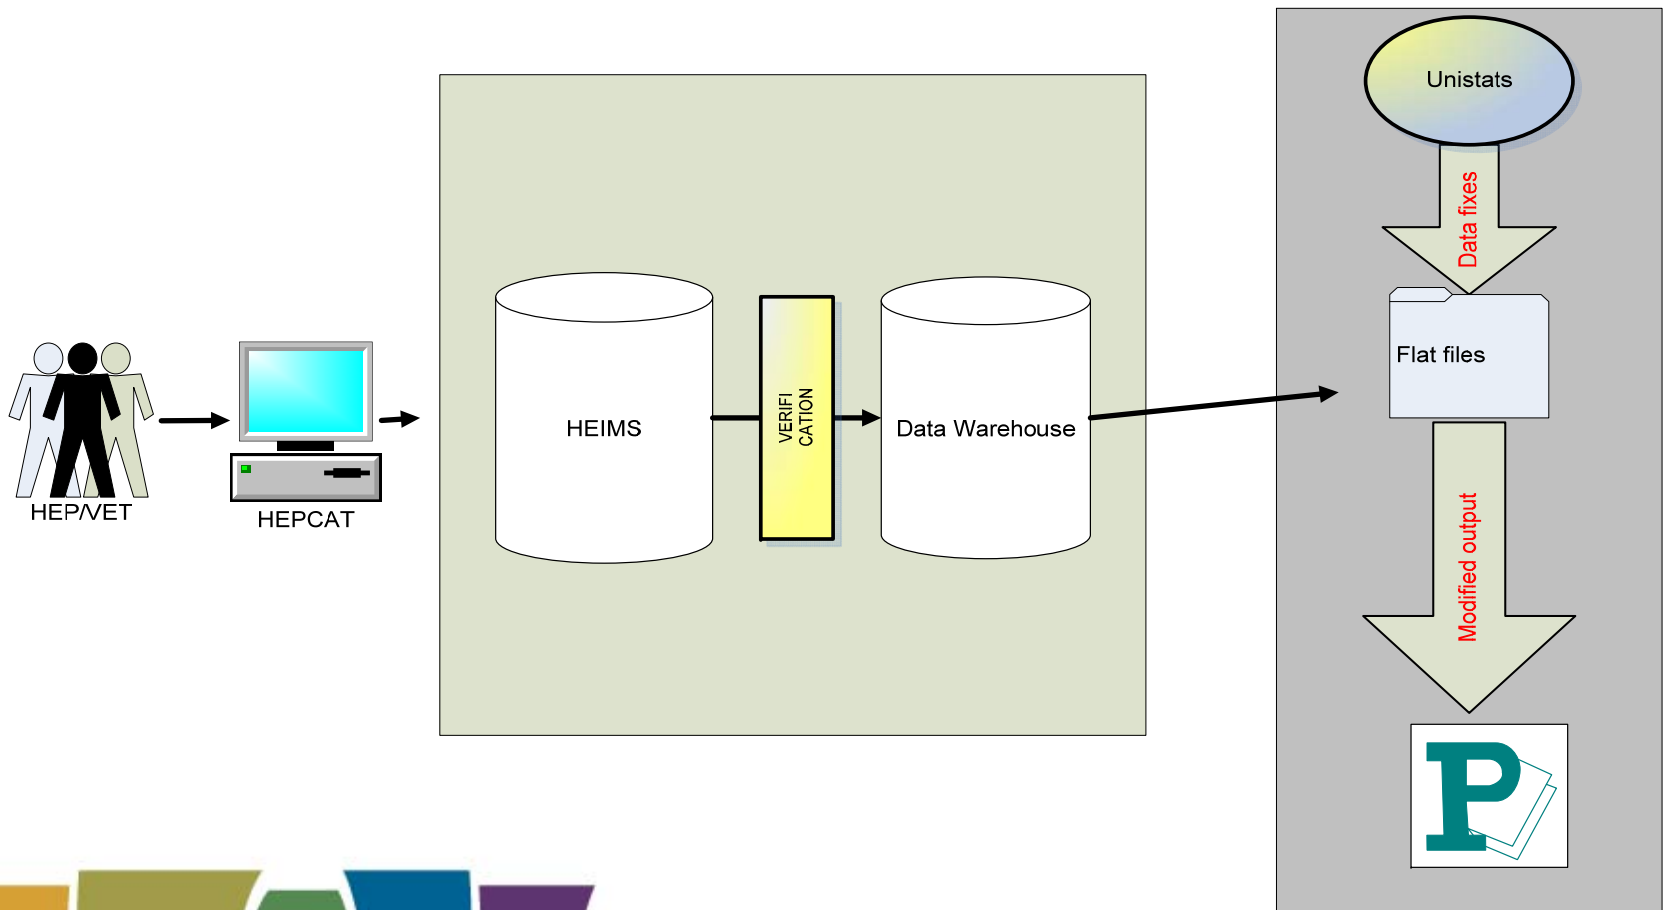

Current issues in data availability

Two key issues have had a major impact on the quality and timeliness of higher education publications:

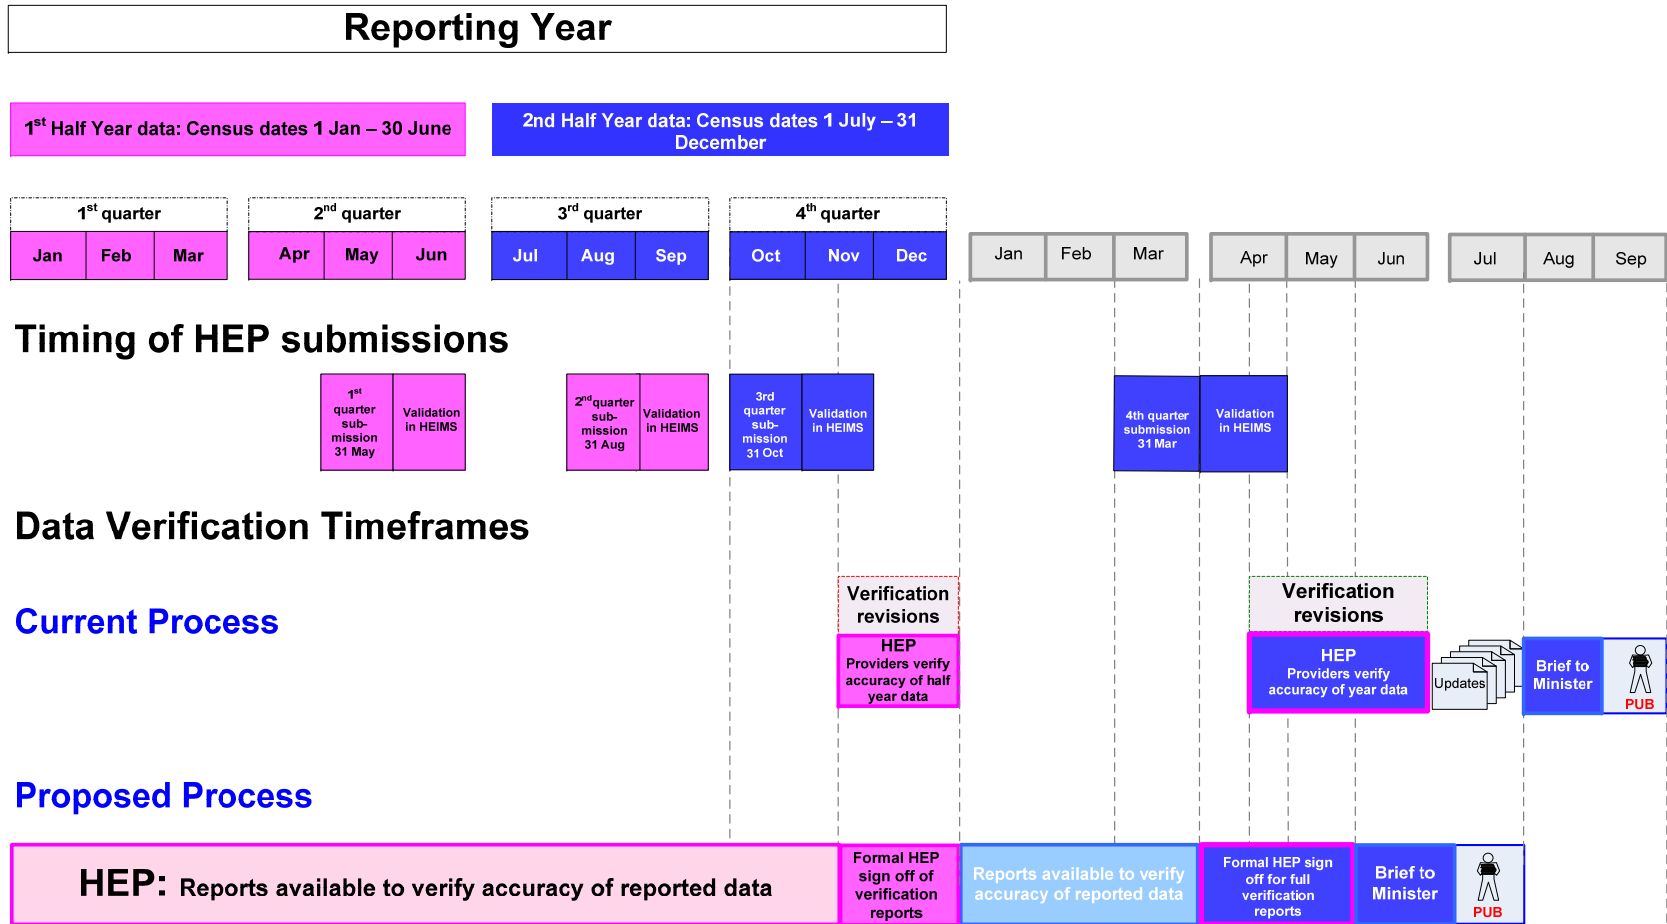

- the timeframes in which the verification processes have been completed; and
- requirements to change data after publication

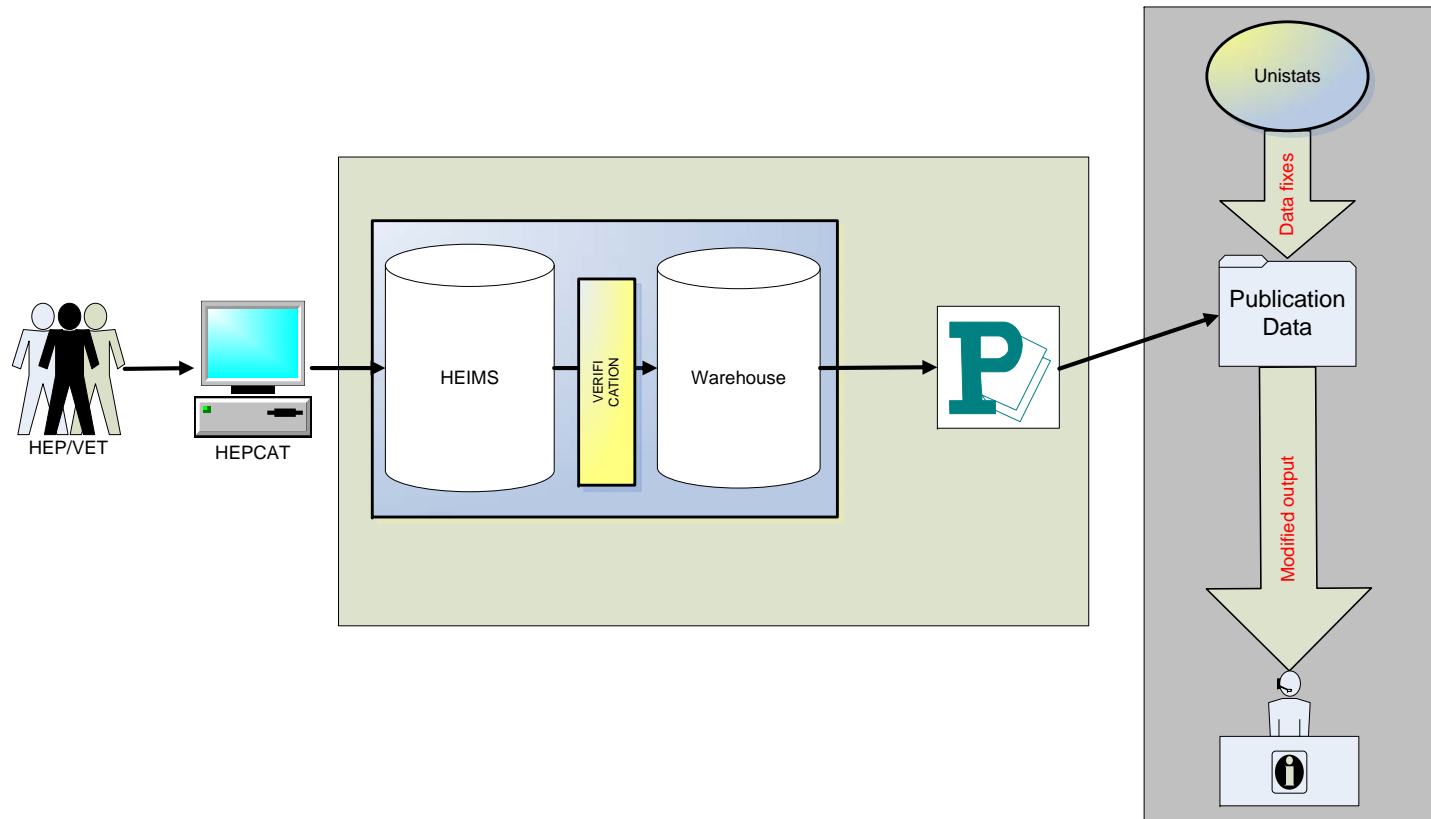

Current model of data input and publication

Data availability - proposed model 2010
